Confession of Sin

Call to Confession (Matthew 6:25-34)

Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Corporate Confession

Our gracious Father, we confess that we far too readily allow our anxieties to beset and consume our thoughts and actions. We fail to cast our cares upon you and trust in your providential hand to work all things for your glory and our good. Help us to trust in you and in your work to direct our paths. Remind us of these precious truths as we look to your creation, the birds of the air and the lilies of the field, and consider how you care for them. May we be a people of faith as we look to the finished work of Christ to save us from these and all of our other sins, knowing that you care for and provide what your children need. We ask this in Christ's name. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon (Ephesians 2:13-16)

BRANDON SCHOLTING

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility by abolishing the law of commandments expressed in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility.
