Congregational Meeting

On February 6, immediately following the service, there will be a short congregational meeting to present the 2022 budget for Harvest Community Church. There will also be a brief overview of the Session update that we sent out last week, and a chance to ask questions. If you are a member, we encourage you to attend.

Harvest Stories

As a church of many stories we often seek to engage with each other's stories in fellowship meals, disciple groups, and in other contexts too. But often we only hear bits and pieces of each other's stories, and even if you've been at Harvest for years, you may not know everyone's story. Therefore, beginning on February 27, and on the fourth Sundays of the month following February, we will be holding Harvest Stories after church. Bring a lunch with you, and 15-20 minutes after the service we will gather in the fellowship hall to hear all that the Lord has done in one of our members. If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Pete Smagacz.

Wednesday Evening Discipleship

Wednesday Evening Discipleship classes will on break until February 2nd.

Prayers for Prodigals

Beginning on Monday, January 31, from 7 pm to 8 pm, Bob DeYoung will be leading a monthly "prayer for prodigals" at the church. During this time, we will focus on praying for friends, children, or other loved ones who are no longer walking with the Lord. If you would like to participate, you are welcome to join us on the final Mondays of each month, at the church, from 7 pm to 8 pm. If you have any questions, please reach out to Bob DeYoung.

Building on a Firm Foundation

The Building on a Firm Foundation Campaign is coming to its completion at the end of March! We are planning on a celebration of God's faithfulness through the generosity of his people in early April (more details coming). There is still time to give to the Campaign, and we would especially encourage you to finish off any pledge you made. Treasurer Kevin Mulhearn will be distributing your progress toward your pledge with the 2021 giving statements soon.

Greeting

Call to Worship: Psalm 98:1-9

ANDREW LIGHTNER

Oh sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things!
His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

The LORD has made known his salvation; he has revealed his righteousness in the sight of the nations. He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises! Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre, with the lyre and the sound of melody! With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD!

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; the world and those who dwell in it! Let the rivers clap their hands; let the hills sing for joy together before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

Confession of Sin

Call to Confession (Jeremiah 7:23-24)

‘Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people. And walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.’ But they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in their own counsels and the stubbornness of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward.

Corporate Confession

Lord, you are the Father of lights, in whom there is no darkness, and in the fullness of time you have delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of your beloved Son. But we confess that we do not always walk in the light. We sometimes conceal our sin rather than expose it to the light of your presence in repentance. Other times we find our loyalties divided between light and darkness; truth and lies. And sometimes we sleep when we should be awake. Forgive us for the many ways we have not walked according to who we are in Christ, and help us to walk in wisdom as children of light. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon (Ephesians 5:1-2)

ANDREW LIGHTNER

Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.
