Sunday School

Sunday school is on break. Classes for all ages will resume on June 5th. More information about upcoming classes will be announced soon.

Church Picnic

Mark your calendar on June 12th for an all church picnic, right after the 10:30 service. We will meet at Elmwood Park, Picnic Pad #3, near UNO. A main dish, water and table service will be provided. Please bring a side or dessert to share. Tables, shade and a playground are available.

Communicant's Class

Parents, during the duration of summer Sunday School (June 5 to July 24) we will be offering a communicants class for non-communing children who may be ready to make a public profession of faith and thus become communing members in the church. If you believe your child understands the gospel and may be ready to make a public profession of faith, this would be the next step! If you would like one or more of your children to attend this class, please sign up in the link in the weekly email so we can plan accordingly. If you have any questions, please contact RE Bob DeYoung or Pastor Andrew.

Call to Worship: Psalm 111:1-10

ANDREW LIGHTNER

Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them. Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and merciful. He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever. He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy; they are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name! The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding.

His praise endures forever!

Confession of Sin

Call to Confession (Deuteronomy 8:1-6)

The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the Lord swore to give to your fathers. And you shall remember the whole way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the Lord your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the Lord your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him.

Corporate Confession

Gracious Father, we confess our forgetfulness and our failure to be doers of the word rather than hearers only. You provide food for those who fear you, but we are not mindful of you as the provider of all things. You remember your covenant forever, but we forget our obligations before you. We hear your word often, but that does not propel us to action as it should. Have mercy upon us, and by your Spirit help us to keep your commandments by walking in your ways and by fearing your name.

The Lord’s Table

Harvest Community Church invites all those who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ, and who are baptized members in good standing of a gospel-preaching church to receive the Lord’s Supper with us. We serve gluten free bread. Grape juice is dark purple, and it is in the center rings of the trays. Wine is lighter purple, and it is in the outside rings.
