Call to Worship: Psalm 138:1-8

BRANDON SCHOLTING

Leader: I will extol you, O LORD,

All: For you have drawn me up and have not let my foes rejoice over me.

Leader: O LORD my God, I cried to you for help,

All: And you have healed me. O LORD, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; you restored me to life from among those who go down to the pit.

Leader: Sing praises to the LORD, O you his saints, and give thanks to his holy name.

All: For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Call to Confession (Colossians 3:1–9)

Corporate Confession

O Lord, creator of heaven and earth, you graciously give breath and life to people, and you breathe new life into those you have claimed as your people. We give you thanks for giving us newness of life and for making us living stones in the spiritual house built upon Jesus Christ. We acknowledge, however, that though we are a new creation in Christ, we often live according to what is earthly. Sinful anger, hatred, envy, and a desire of revenge too often stirs within us, and with our lips we speak lies rather than truth. Forgive us for the ways we have transgressed your holy commandments, the many ways we have lived according to what is earthly rather than heavenly, and renew us that we might walk in your ways and shine the light of your Gospel in the world. Amen.

PASTOR EDISON FLOREZ

The Lord’s Table

Harvest Community Church invites all those who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ, and who are baptized, communicant members in good standing of a gospel-preaching church, to receive the Lord’s Supper with us. (Baptized children who have not yet become communicant members by a credible profession of faith should not participate in the Lord’s Supper.) We serve gluten-free bread. Grape juice (dark purple) is in the center rings of the trays. Wine (light purple) is in the outside rings. Please hold the elements until all have been served, and then we will eat and drink together.
